

Yves Dietrich Inaugurates New Office Space for DecBectochem Engineering Pvt Ltd in Mumbai

April 2, 2025 – DecBectochem Engineering Pvt Ltd is thrilled to announce the official inauguration of its new office space in Mumbai, marked by a special visit from our Managing Director, Yves Dietrich. The ribbon-cutting ceremony took place recently, celebrating this significant milestone for our Indian branch.

Following the recent relocation, our dedicated team has now fully settled into their new workspace, which boasts a spacious layout and contemporary design. This modern environment is thoughtfully crafted to foster collaboration and creativity, providing the ideal setting for our highly motivated teams to excel.

"Our new offices are more than just a physical space; it embodies our commitment to excellence in everything we do," said Yves Dietrich. "We believe that a well-designed workplace enhances productivity and encourages teamwork, and we are excited to see our teams thrive in this dynamic environment."

The relocation to this new location marks a new chapter for DecBectochem Engineering Pvt Ltd, reinforcing our commitment to delivering exceptional service and support to our customers in the region.

Together, we look forward to achieving new heights of success.
